

Here are some websites and activities to do during the Easter Holidays.

These are optional, please make sure you have a break over the Easter Holidays.

- Experimental - <https://www.rigb.org/families/experimental>
This website shows investigations that are easy to do at home. There's a little film for each activity and it also explains what the science is behind it. Here is a link that will give you more information about it:
