Set 3 sounds

Daily Spelling Practise - ai, ay, a-e

Practise these spellings every day. Look at them, say them, cover them then write them and see if you were correct. Extra challenge - put them in a sentence.

On Friday get you adult to test you on them.

pl ay	tod ay	tr ay	sn ai l	tr ai n
p ai nt	m a k e	sn a k e	n a me	s a me

Weekly Written Task (break it up over the week)

Write a story about a pirate or a mermaid. They must go on an adventure.

This can be recorded in anyway you like (in your blue book, make into a book, typed up). Try to include an illustration.

Concentrate on making sure you have capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.

Daily Maths

- Reading, writing and counting with numbers to 50.
- I have set a game on purple mash that will help with number bond work

Weekly Maths - Measuring Length (break it up over the week)

- 1. Look at comparing the length of objects using the words longer, taller, shorter
- 2. Order objects (toys, blocks, etc), family members from tallest to shortest
- 3. Measure with non-standard units (not centimetres/meters etc). Measure items with blocks, hands, coins, or anything you have around the house e.g. the book is 10 pennies long or the book is 2 hands long.
- 4. If you have a ruler or tape measure introduce looking at centimetres. Draw lines and measure them, measurer objects around the house, measure parts of your body. Record these measurement in your blue book. (I have uploaded a printable ruler if you need one and have access to a printer)
