

Let's have a look at the poems for
this session

'What is Green?' by Mary O'Neill

'What is Pink?' by Christina Rossetti

- What colours can you identify in the poems?
- Which is your favourite piece of imagery in each poem?
- Which line do you think is most effective in each poem?
- Can you identify any lines that evoke objects, feelings or particular settings?

Let's look back at what we did yesterday...

What colour did you describe?

What kind of character did you think they are?

Can you write a sentence about your colour?

The rest of us will try and guess which colour it is.

Our task today is to write a poem about our colour, in the style of, and taking inspiration from, the two poems we have looked at.

Challenge: Can you make it rhyme?

example...

Orange is the fiery sun,

It looks down on us as we have fun.
