

Today, we're going to plan our newspaper articles.

Let's recap what we looked at yesterday. What does each section of our newspaper need to include?

You are going to write your article on the moment in Harry Potter, where the troll escapes and enters the girls' bathroom.

We are going to imagine that we are reporters, writing a newspaper article on this event at Hogwarts.

WALT plan a newspaper article

Use this video clip to fill in your plan. Think back to when we have used this in the past. What should they look like? How much detail is needed?

Remember, the more details/bullet points you can put in the plan, the easier you'll find the article to write.
