

New children's books we love!

November

Every month, BookTrust review dozens of new books for children and teenagers. Here are the ones they liked best in November: guaranteed to get your child reading...

These are just a few of their suggestions. For the full list have a look at their website

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/our-recommendations/best-new-books/>

For ages 0-3 and up

Beneath

Author: Cori Doerrfeld

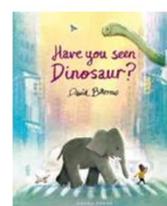

Finn is in a horrible mood and doesn't want to talk about it – he'd rather hide under the bedcovers. But, Grandpa persuades Finn to come for a walk outside – Finn can even stay under the blanket and use it like a comforting, protective cloak.

Zoom!

Author: Sam Usher

A heart-warming adventure tale, this picture book sees a young boy and his Grandad take to the skies to rescue the stranded astronauts spotted through their telescope.

Have you seen Dinosaur?

Author: David Barrow

A little boy, his dog and his friend Elephant decide to go looking for dinosaurs in a city that looks remarkably like New York. They try the museum, the underground train, the skate park, but the trio find it very hard to spot any at all! Finally, when they rest at the top of a rather comfy green hill, they realise what they've been overlooking.

For ages 4-5 and up

Little Wolf

Author: Peter Donnelly

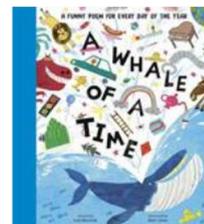

Will little wolf cub find his inner howl in time for the big Howling Ceremony? Little Wolf is a heartfelt tale of courage, perseverance, family, friendship and proving that even the smallest voice can make the sweetest sound.

The Big Dreaming

Author: Michael Rosen Illustrator: Daniel Egnéus

It'snearly time for the Big Dreaming. Big Bear and Little Bear will sleep through the Winter and wake in Spring. But Little Bear is worried he'll run out of dreams, so he sets off on an adventure to find some... Perfect for bedtime reading.

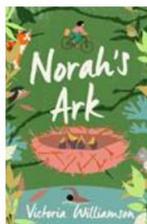

A Whale of a Time: a funny poem for every day of the year

Author: Various selected by Lou Peacock

Illustrator: Matt Hunt

A treasure trove of funny poems encompassing many subjects and poets – one for every day of the year! A beautiful gift book.

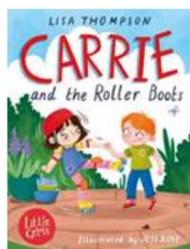

For ages 6-8 and up

Norah's Ark

Author: Victoria Williamson

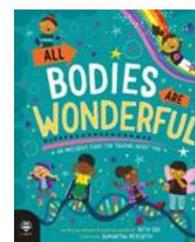

Norah and Adam are from very different backgrounds but, united by their loneliness and love of animals, they form an unexpected friendship. This powerful, uplifting novel sensitively highlights some tough issues, including homelessness, addiction, illness and bullying.

Carrie and the Roller Boots

Author: Lisa Thompson Illustrator: Jess Rose

Carrie devises an elaborate roller-skating routine to perform at her school assembly, but she's never roller-skated before and it's much trickier than she thought. This delightful, illustrated chapter book about friendship and perseverance is ideal for dyslexic or reluctant readers.

All Bodies Are Wonderful

Author: Beth Cox Illustrator: Samantha Meredith

A non-fiction resource for discussing the amazing and unique human body.

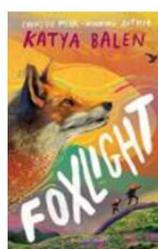

For ages 9-11 and up

The Snow Girl

Author: Sophie Anderson Illustrator: Melissa Castrillón

Tasha is delighted when her snow girl comes to life and wishes the winter could last forever, as she cannot bear the thought of losing her only friend. An enchanting story about courage and friendship, enhanced by magical illustrations.

Foxlight

Author: Katya Balen Illustrator: Barry Falls

Fantasy about sisters in a children's home who go in search of their mother.

Her Majesty's League of Remarkable Young Ladies

Author: Alison D Stegert

Set in 1889, against a backdrop of increasing protest from women wanting more choices and of rapid technological change, this is a fun and fascinating tale of intrigue and sisterhood.